HOUSING - NOTICE TO ALL TENANTS AND LANDLORDS IN QUEBEC

The Rental Board Commissioner (Quebec Rental Board) has jurisdiction over all rented apartments throughout the Province of Quebec, without exception. If the duration of your lease is 12 months or more and expires on April 30th or May 1st, 1974, it comes under the category of automatically renewable leases, subject to the same conditions, and at the same rental price, until June 30th 1975.

To Avoid Automatic Renewal

- a) the tenant must: - advise the landlord in writing, prior to February 1st, 1974, of his intention to vacate the premises upon the expiry of his present lease.
- b) the landlord must: - send a written eviction notice prior to February 1st 1974; - or send a written notice of rent increase, or changes in clauses in the lease, prior to February 1st, 1974.

Upon receipt of one or the other of these notices from a landlord, the tenant can, within 30 days of this notice:

- a) - advise the landlord in writing of his intention to vacate the premises;
- b) - or provide a written request to the Rental Board Commissioner (Quebec Rental Board) to obtain an extension of the lease and/or determine the amount of rent. A copy of the request must also be sent to the landlord within the prescribed delay period of 30 days.

The tenant who does not reply to his landlord, or who does not contact the Rental Commissioner (Quebec Rental Board) within 30 days provided for by law, accepts the notice of either eviction, increase in rent, or changes in clauses in the lease.

If your lease is shorter than 12 months, or if it expires on a date other than April 30th or May 1st, 1974, contact your legal advisor or the Rental Commissioner (Quebec Rental Board) for more complete details. Info - M. Glowacki, Room H-405.
